

CIR-5: Fines and Fees Policy

Adopted: 10/17/2013; Last Revised: 8/16/2018

Policy Statement

A public library exists to serve the community and is based on the concept of sharing resources. When one person violates that principle by retaining materials beyond the established limits, that person takes unfair advantage of the community as a whole. Additionally, some library resources require additional funding support.

Regulations

1. To encourage the prompt return of materials, the library charges a per day overdue fine based on the type of item:

2. On the day after the due date, all materials will be considered overdue if they have not been renewed or returned.
3. No fines will accrue on days that the library is closed.
4. The library will notify patrons of the overdue materials via email or United States Postal Service in compliance with state law.³
5. When the maximum fine level shown above has been reached, the item status will change and the Default Replacement Fee for Material will automatically be added to the patron account balance, along with a $2.00 Processing Fee.
6. The Outstanding Fee Limit is $10.00 or more than one lost item. Any patron whose account equals this limit shall forfeit borrowing privileges until materials are returned and fines are paid. Patrons experiencing unusual difficulty in returning their materials or paying their fines should contact the library circulation staff.
7. When a patron claims an item returned, staff will continue to look for the item for six months. If the item is not found and the claim is the second one for the patron, there will be a Processing Fee of $15.00 added to the patron account.
8. Accounts with a balance of $25 for more than 30 days shall be turned over to a collection agency. Notification will be sent to patrons before the account is turned over to the library's collection agency. A service fee will be automatically added.
9. Customers should resolve disputed fees before paying for them. Once payment for library fees has been accepted, monetary refunds will not be issued.
